

Your base load dominates the year; cooling drives the summer increase

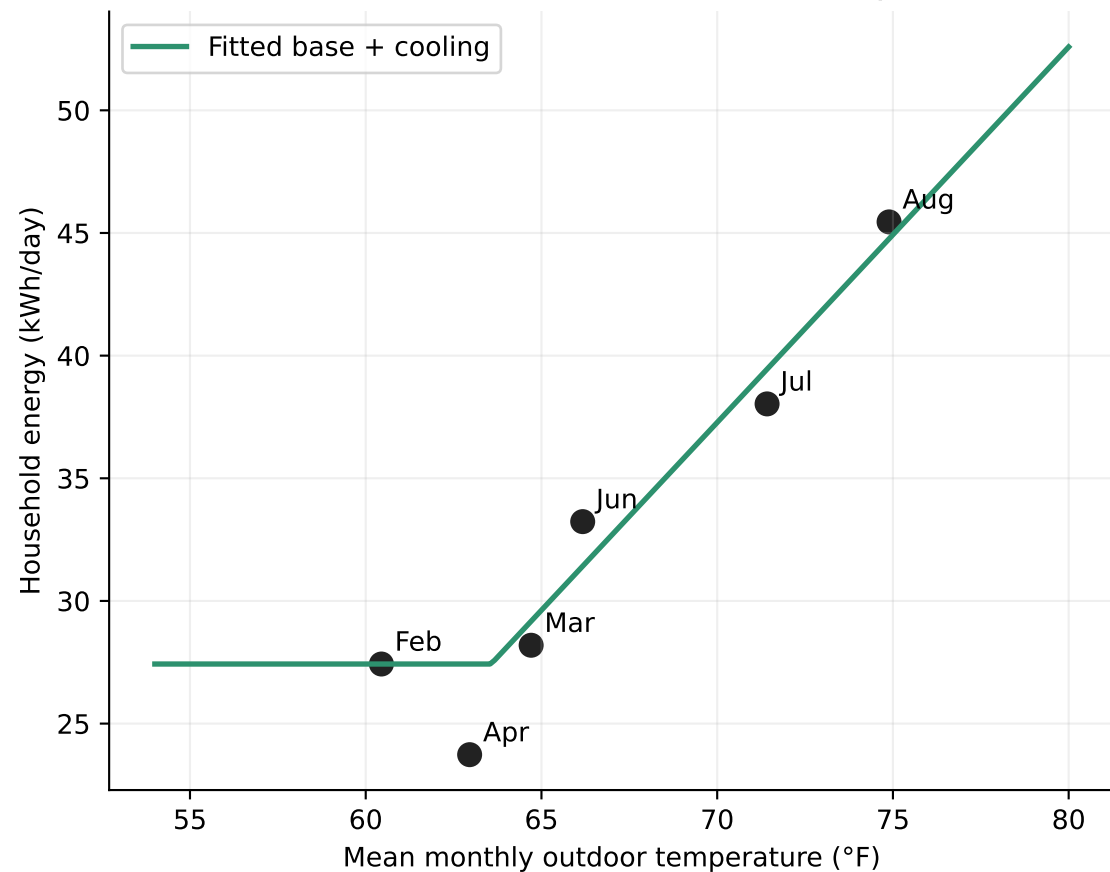

Utility charges only — equipment cost is compared separately

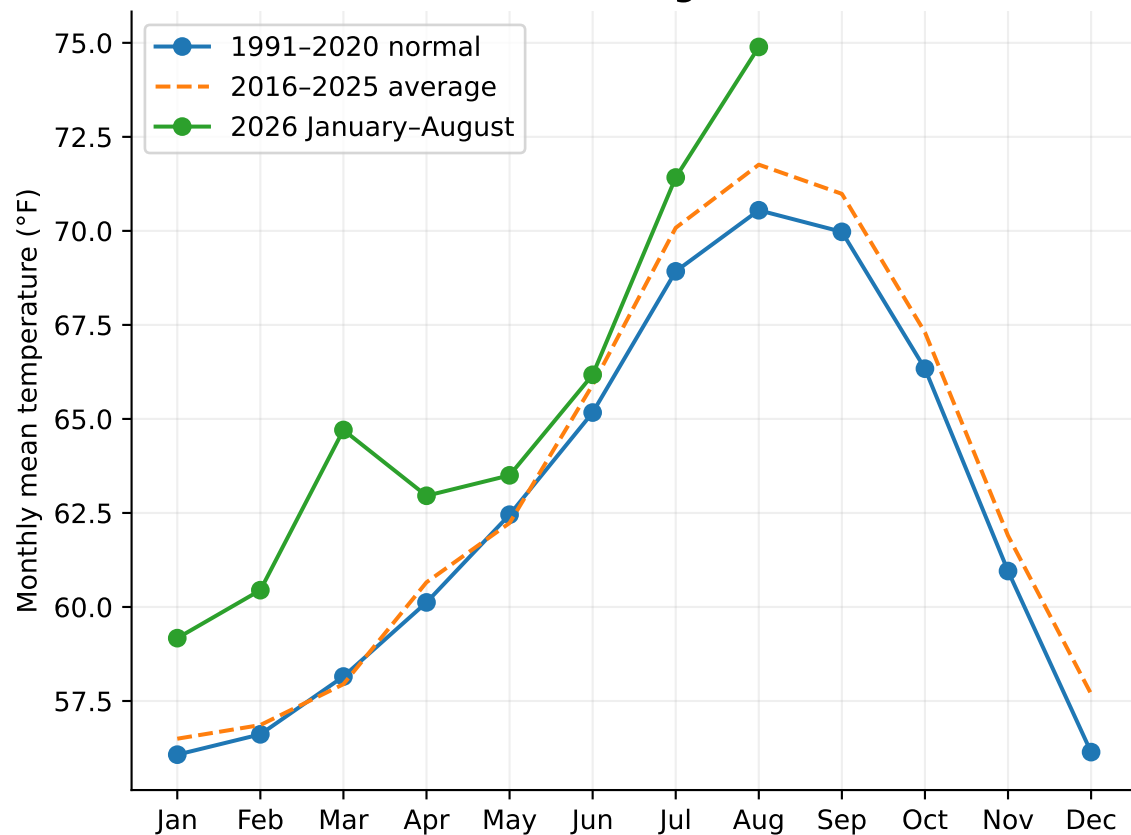

Forecast, not measured interval data. Solar case uses bundled SDG&E EV-TOU-5; monthly values precede credit banking/true-up. Normal weather: 1991-2020 ERA5. Solar: PVGIS NSRDB 2005-2015. No gas charges or climate credits modeled.

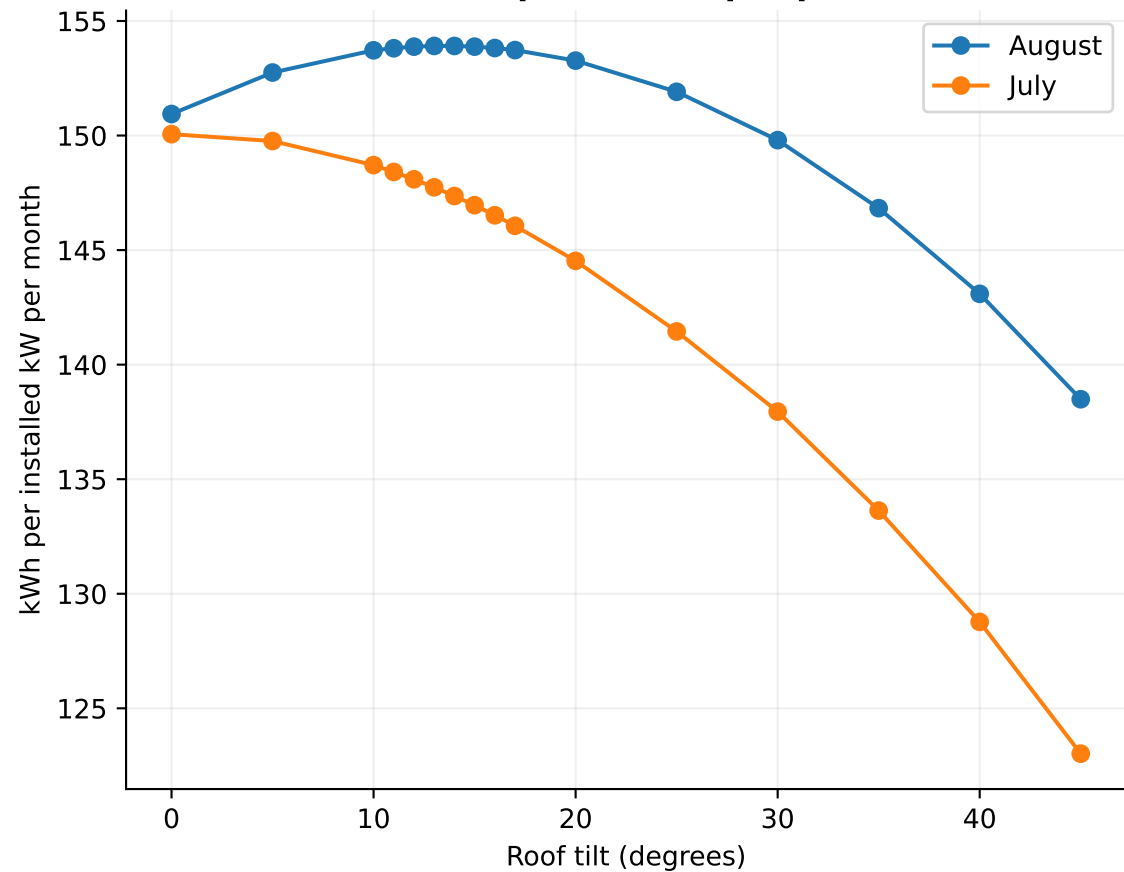

Fit: $27.43 + 1.53 \times \max(T - 63.6, 0)$

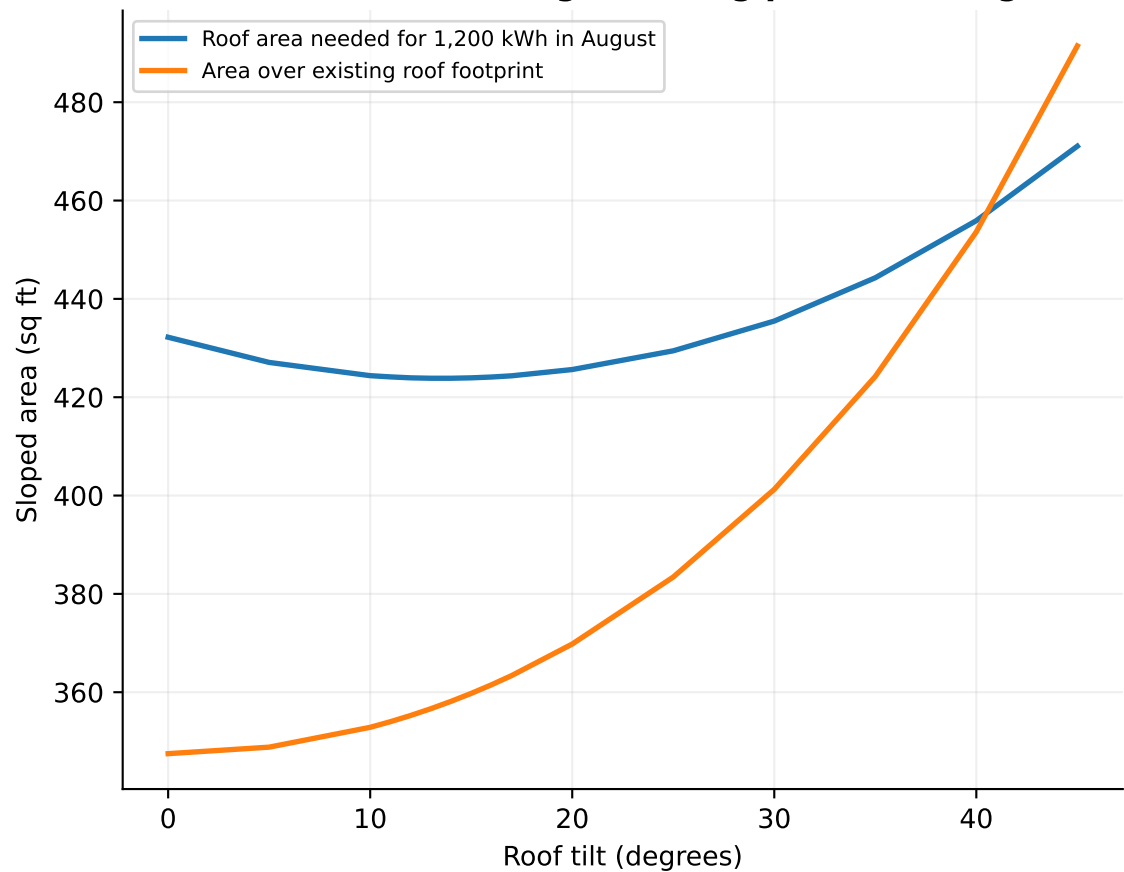

Coastal San Diego weather

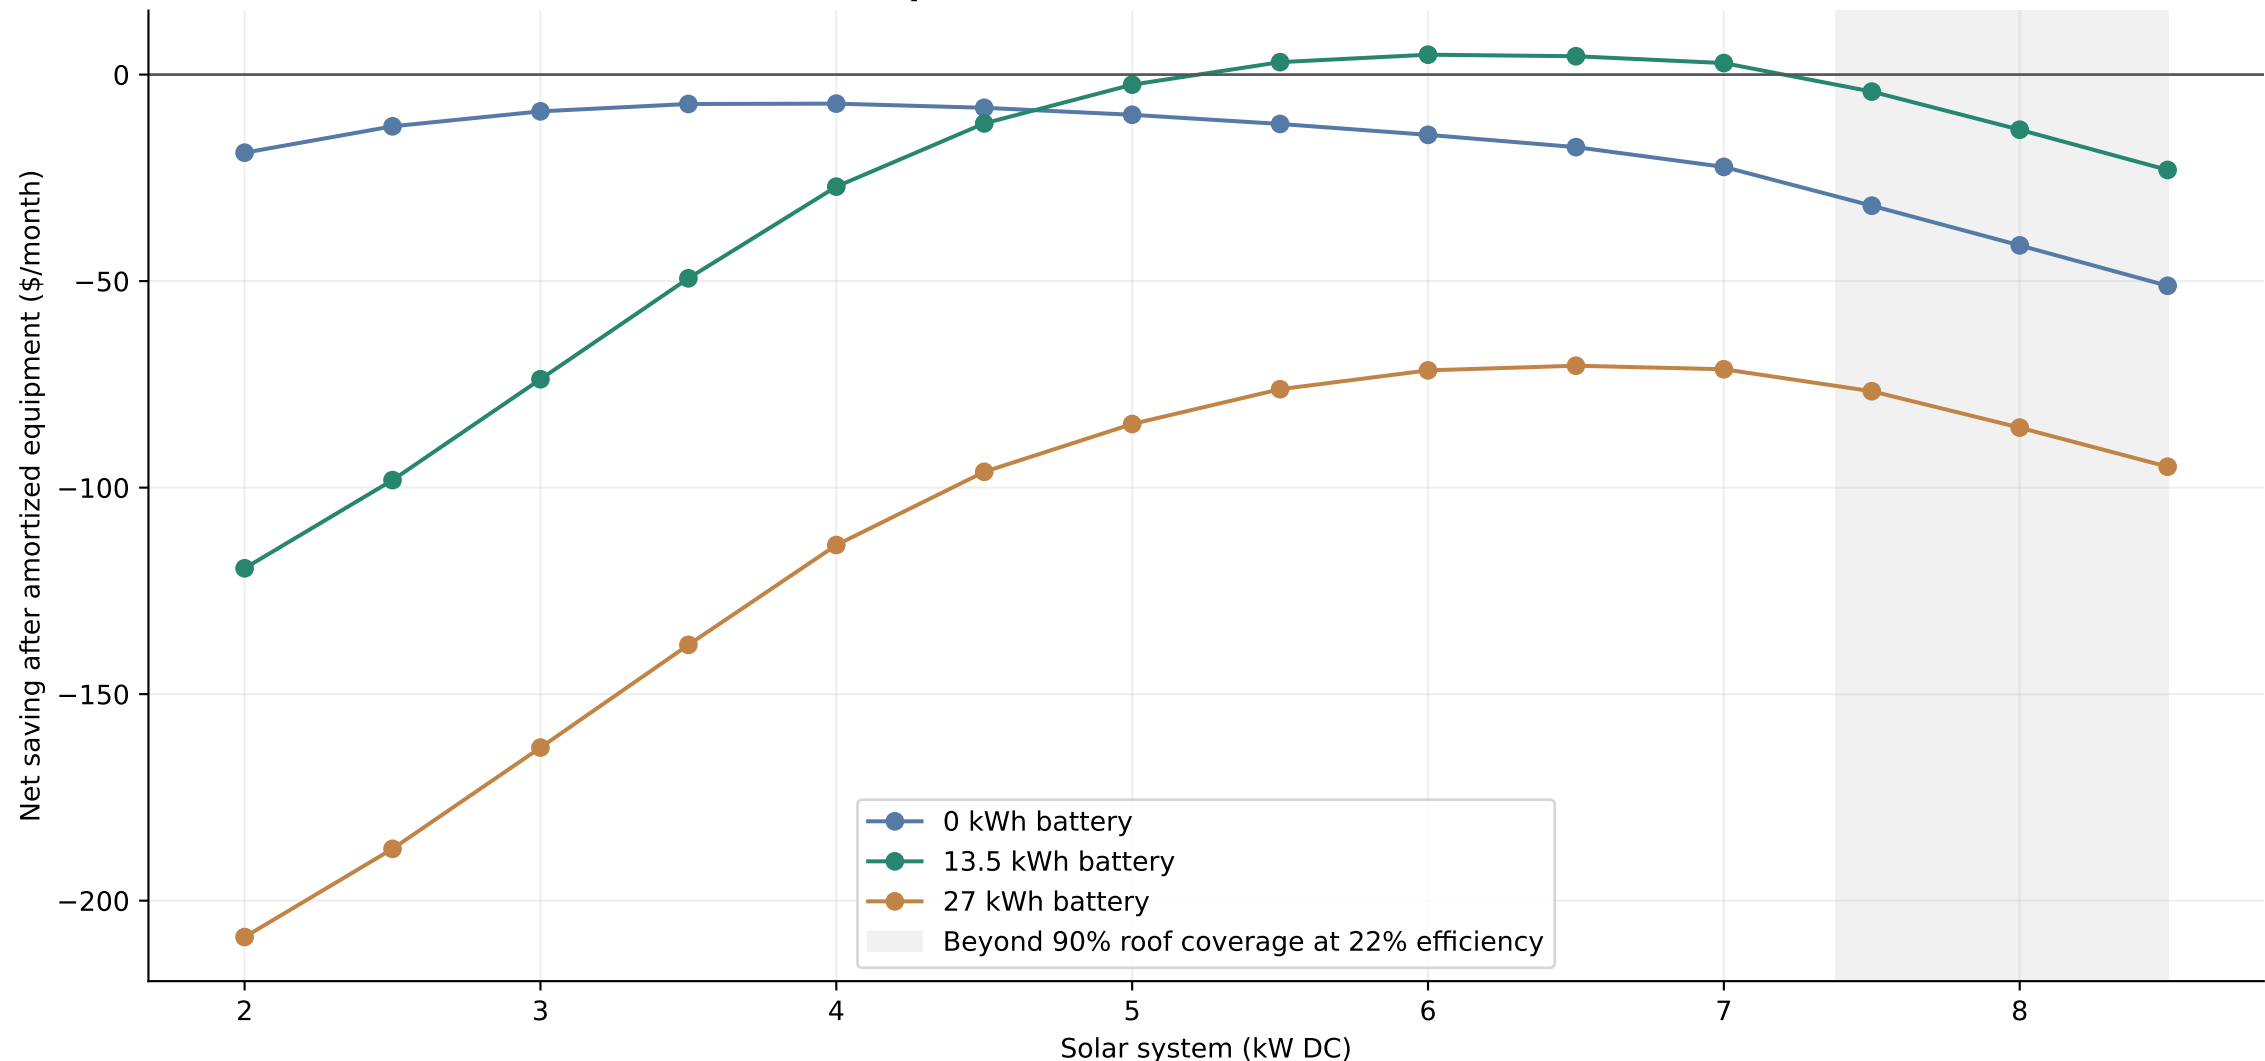

Summer production per panel

22% modules, 90% generating panel coverage

Financial comparison — current 30° roof, custom solar finish

25 years, 5% real discount, 0.5% annual savings degradation; battery/inverter replacement in year 15.
Includes 7,500 custom – roof allowance + 2,500 electrical allowance; no rebate. Utility tariff and hourly household profile provisional.